Babyionsh captivity were over. They were free. There was a work to do to rebuild Jerusalem. Plans were laid. The first item on the agenda was to urge the people to be united in God. "Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord." Freedom July 4

The inhabitants of one city shall go to another saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and seek the Lord of hosts: I will go also. Zech. 8:21.

The victorious colonists willed an inheritance to their posterity, and July 4 became the day to celebrate the gift - "freedom".

We are the beneficaries of that inheritance. We have freedom to worship God as we wish, to build a temple to the living God. A temple of love, tolerance, willingness to sacrifice as did our forefathers that others may share our inheritance, our freedom.

We can share the feelings of Zechariah and his people as they labored to restore Jerusalem. Seventy years of
